TEMPE

MAR 28-29th 2020

Unfortunately,
Tempe was cancelled this year due to the Corona Virus pandemic. However, it was a necessary action needed to ensure the community's safety.

UCLA Dragon Boat's winter season was cut short, but there were still many long lasting memories we made throughout the quarter.

Let's rewind shall we?

RETREAT

JAN 17-20th 2020

To start off the new year, the team took to Jesus House for a weekend of bonding. The weekend started off with singing and ended off with reading retreat notes. Jesus House was not as we remembered, but we still made the best of our situation and hung out with the fam :)

ALUMNI DAY

FEBRUARY 15th 2020

UCLA Dragon Boat hosted their annual Alumni Day. After the brief introduction, the team mingled with the alumni while eating banh mi and snacks. Through games and activities, the team bonded with their "team leader" aka alumni as each team fought to the death. Afterwards, the alumni got back on the water for a quick dragon boat session.

VET/NEWBIE DINNER

MARCH 6th 2020

Yeet Yeet. Once again, UCLA Dragon Boat split into vets and newbies to enjoy a night out in Los Angeles and eat some delicious food. Woah! Everyone looks so good. Yea you got that yummy yummy, yummy yummy, yummy yummy yum.

BEACH CLEAN UP

MARCH 8th 2020

Service time! UCLA Dragon Boat took to their home base and cleaned up around the area of Long Beach :)

Fundraiser time! This year we hosted a successful SPARK campaign, raising $7,221, nearly 500% more than our initial goal. Thank to those who helped us achieve this goal!

We also started with an instagram take over series throughout the month of February, where our paddlers get to share their day.

Here are a few highlights!
